Inn at Oyster Point Spreads the Holiday Spirit in San Francisco With New Seasonal Package

SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, CA (September 11, 2007) – Looking for a special spot to spend the holidays this year or just want to schedule in some big-city shopping for gifts? Cozy up to the idea of spending the spirit-filled season in San Francisco with the new Holiday on the Bay package at South San Francisco's Inn at Oyster Point – an offering that gives guests a free night's stay, along with city-inspired holiday gifts.

Available from November 16, 2007 to January 5, 2008, the Holiday on the Bay package extends time spent in the city for family gatherings or holiday shopping by providing guests with a third night free when they book a two-night stay any day of the week.

For just $339, guests are gifted with three nights in a beautiful queen room overlooking the San Francisco Bay. Located just minutes from the San Francisco International Airport and a short drive away from the city's popular shopping mecca, Union Square, Inn at Oyster Point is a convenient and comfortable spot for travelers settling into the city during the holiday season.

The Holiday on the Bay package includes:

- Three-night accommodations (third night is free!) in a queen room overlooking the San Francisco Bay, complete with a cozy fireplace and featherbed
- A personalized holiday stocking for each guest filled with fruit, nuts and seasonal sweets
- A special San Francisco tour book to guide guests to the “best of the Bay”
- An expanded continental breakfast delivered to the room each morning, including a choice of pastries, bagels, hot and cold cereals, fresh fruit, cottage cheese, yogurt and a wide selection of beverages

“San Francisco is a magical place to be during the holiday season,” said Marla Catt, general manager at Inn at Oyster Point. “We look forward to spreading the spirit to our guests by giving them some extra special gifts when they stay with us.”
